PREFACE

This volume of the Directory of Soviet Officials is the second in a series of four. It identifies individuals who hold positions in selected party, government and public organizations in the Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic (RSFSR), the largest of the USSR's constituent republics. This edition supersedes CR 79-10005, March 1979 (Directory of Soviet Officials, Volume II: RSFSR Organizations). It covers RSFSR organizations only; national-level organizations are treated in Volume I (CR 79-16593, November 1979); organizations in the other republics are covered in Volume III (CR 79-11484, March 1979); and science and education organizations are dealt with in Volume IV (CR 80-13202, July 1980).

Uses. The Directory may be used to find either the incumbents of given positions within an organization or the positions of given individuals. For some organizations, notably government ministries, the Directory also lists all known major components, including those whose leading administrators were not known at the time of publication; hence it is in a limited sense also a guide to the internal structure of these organizations.

Directory Abbreviations and Dates. The date an individual assumed his position is listed in the Position column. Dates are preceded by the abbreviations "ap" (for appointed), "el" (for elected) and "id" (for first identification in position). Partial dates are given when exact dates are not known (e.g., when identifications are taken from books or periodicals). Dates of birth are listed in the Birth column for selected officials. In most cases, only the last two digits of a year are listed. For example, 97 indicates the year 1897, 00 indicates 1900, and 17 indicates 1917. Names are given in full where known.

Organizations. An effort has been made to verify and standardize the names of organizational components and the position titles of individuals, but some unverified entries remain where the sole source is a non-Soviet publication. Addresses and Russian titles of organizations based in Moscow are taken from Spisok Abonentov Moskovskoy Gorodskoy Telefonnoy Seti (List of Subscribers to the Moscow City Telephone System), 1978.

Moscow and Leningrad. Party and government organizations for these areas are covered in greater depth than any other cities or oblasts and are treated in a separate section of this volume.

Rendering of Proper Names. Transliteration from Russian follows the system authorized by the Board of Geographic Names (BGN). Non-Russian names (such as those of Ukrainian or Estonian origin), for which Latin alphabet spellings or separate BGN transliteration systems exist, are treated as Russian names and are transliterated from their Russian spellings when known. The Russian words kray, oblast, okrug and rayon—standard terms for the territorial units in the USSR—are not translated. Place names have been translated where possible (Yevreyskaya Autonomous Oblast, for example, is rendered as Jewish Autonomous Oblast), and Russian adjectival endings have been eliminated (Leningradskaya Oblast is rendered as Leningrad Oblast).

Special Features. Certain features of this volume derive from the uniqueness of the RSFSR as a Soviet republic. Because it has no separate party organization of its own, there is no republic party Central Committee, a body that serves in other republics as a convenient registry of elite officialdom. All of the deputies to the RSFSR Supreme Soviet, however, are listed with their constituencies at election time in 1980. As in the case of the party, certain other important national organizations, such as the Komsomol, a party youth organization, lack republic-level components in the RSFSR; their representatives at lower levels are listed whenever possible.

At the end of this publication is a map of the RSFSR. On it are included all of the republic's administrative subdivisions, along with all cities, towns and districts whose leading officials appear in the Directory.

Date of Information. Information in this volume of the directory is current as of 30 May 1980. Population statistics reflect the January 1979 All-Union Census (Naseleniye SSSR: Po dannym Vsesoyuznoy perepisi naseleniya 1979 goda).
